Faculty of Education & Methodology

Teacher Education Programmes

BA B.Ed. / B.Sc. B.Ed. Integrated Programmes

Faculty of Education & Methodology is offering NCTE approved B.A. B.Ed. & B.Sc. B.Ed. programmes since year 2015.

These are four-year integrated curriculum in which students can save one year by completing a B.A. or B.Sc. programme in addition to a B.Ed., depending on their unique potential.

For becoming a teacher, the candidate must have a bachelor's degree in education. Different training and teaching strategies are included in the B.Ed.

The programme is aimed to equip future teachers for nation-building following UGC and NCTE criteria. It allows students to save one year. The programme aims to provide students with theoretical knowledge and practical abilities in a variety of scientific fields and problem-solving skills.

The courses are unique in the sense that the students do not have to spend three years in acquiring a graduate degree and then going for the traditional B. Ed course. It not only saves a year but also enables them to acquire knowledge of the teaching techniques from the very beginning. The courses, which have national and international recognition, have been designed scientifically and include the latest information in the field of Educational Psychology and teaching techniques.
