To provide an inclusive environment and develop the emotional and religious feelings among the students and the faculty, commemorative days are celebrated on the campus with the support of management not only recreation and amusement but also to generate the feeling of oneness and social harmony.

The students, teachers and staff members jointly celebrate the cultural and regional festivals, like Holi, Diwali, Christmas, Eid, Lohri, New-year, Teacher's Day, Orientation Sessions, Induction program, Youth Day, Women's Day, Yoga Day etc.

All the religious ritual activities are performed on the campus with great zeal and enthusiasm. Motivational lectures of eminent persons are arranged for all-round development of the students and to make them responsible citizens following the national values of social and communal harmony and national integration.

Besides academic and cultural activities, the University has infrastructure for a variety of indoor and outdoor sports activities for the physical development of the students.

Special facilities are created for the Divyangjan students. Their mobility is supported with the provision of ramps and wheelchairs. Special restroom facilities have been provided in the university premises. Audio-visual and Braille facilities are available for them on the ground floor of the library. During the examination, scribes are arranged for the needy
