Faculty of Law and Governance, Jayoti Vidyapeeth Women's University celebrated 2 October, 2021 with the inauguration of Pan India awareness and outreach campaign.

The Hon'ble chief guest Shri Samrindra Singh Sikharwar Secretary, District Legal Services Authority,(Additional District and session judge Jaipur Distict) inaugurated the event with the lamp lightning . Dr. Beena Diwan, Direct Faculty of Law & Governance, shared her views about the importance of the Gandhi Jayanti, and welcomed chief guest, faculty members and all the students out there.

The program started with the National Anthem "Jana Gana Mana" which was sung by everyone with full of respect, pride and happiness. Thereafter, The chief guest of the program addressed all the students and shared his views about the problems and controversies being faced by the financially weak people in the courts and how the cases came day by day, month by month but also pending in court for years.

For years people are not getting timely justice, as only 10% of the cases are heard in the court but the rest 90% of the cases remain untouched. keeping in view of this situation, Pan India and Awareness and Outreach campaign inaugurated to make people aware about laws And firstly it has been started from Jayoti Vidyapeeth Women's University and it will be continuous till 14th November.
